Guidelines for Authors

Objectives:

It encourages publication of research works in the Faculty of Education as well as universities of the Occupied territories, whereas it gives priority in publication as per date of reception and academic qualities.

Contents:

It publishes research works on humanities, and physical and applied sciences.

Instructions to Researchers:

1. Have the research typed on quality white paper, size 21 x 29.7 cm, and double spaced. Make sure you send four copies thereof.
2. The printed area of the paper must be 13 x 19 cm.
3. Area of the printed material on the front page (including research title, name and address of the author) is 13 x 17.8 cm.
4. Research title is to be in large letters, and in the middle of the page, 5 centimeters down the top side. Leave 4 spaces between the research title and names(s) of the author(s); leave a single space between the author's name and address. Leave 4 spaces between the author's address and the abstract (in Arabic & English), and finally keep 4 spaces between the abstract and the writing.
5. Leave 5 spaces on top of each new paragraph.
6. Tables must be typed as part of the research, leaving a similar area on top and under each table, and have their positions justified. Each table should be indexed as a reference and contained in a single page.
7. Diagrams and different figures should be illustrated each on a separate page.
8. Have the research processed on the Magic Writer or the publisher.
9. Researches should be written in Arabic language, except in case that the nature of the research must be written in another language.
10. Documentation: Researchers are advised to abide by the following steps:

A. Resources and References:

1. The footnotes are to be listed at the end, where they will have progressive numbers. This applies on the humanities.
2. Ordering of resources and references will be as follows:
The author's name, first name, colon, book's title, number at volumes, name of investigator or translator, edition and number thereof, publisher, country, date, volume and page.
If the resource is used again, an abbreviation must be used to indicate. e.g.
Clough R.W. and Ponzie, J.: Dynamics Structures. McGraw Hill, Inc., New York, 1975.p5.

B. Articles:

The writer's last name, first name, title of the article, name of the periodical, issue, year, and page. e.g. Kohorn, E.L.: An evaluation of ultrasonic fetal cephalometry. Am. J. Obstet. Gynecol. 97 (1967. 553) .

C. When a Quranic verse is quoted write the following:

Name of the sura, number of the verse: e.g. : Al-a-raf: 3.

D. When a Saying of the Prophet (PBUH) is quoted, state place and resources of exposition, listing volume, if available, and page No.

E. Writers of Researches in English (humanities) may apply APA method in documentation.

11. Words of Commendation, if any, are written directly before the references.

12. Write the number of each page in pencil at the bottom.

13. The Journal accepts book reviews for newly published books, whereas such do not exceed 500 words.

14. Researches previously published or approved for publication by another academic Journal or in a book form will not be published.

15. The author wishing to publish his research in the Journal must send it to the following address: Editor-in-Chief
