Abstract

Abu-Gush family the Shyikhs of Nahiya Bani-Malk in the Sunjuq of Jerusalem in the Ottoman Period (1750-1860)

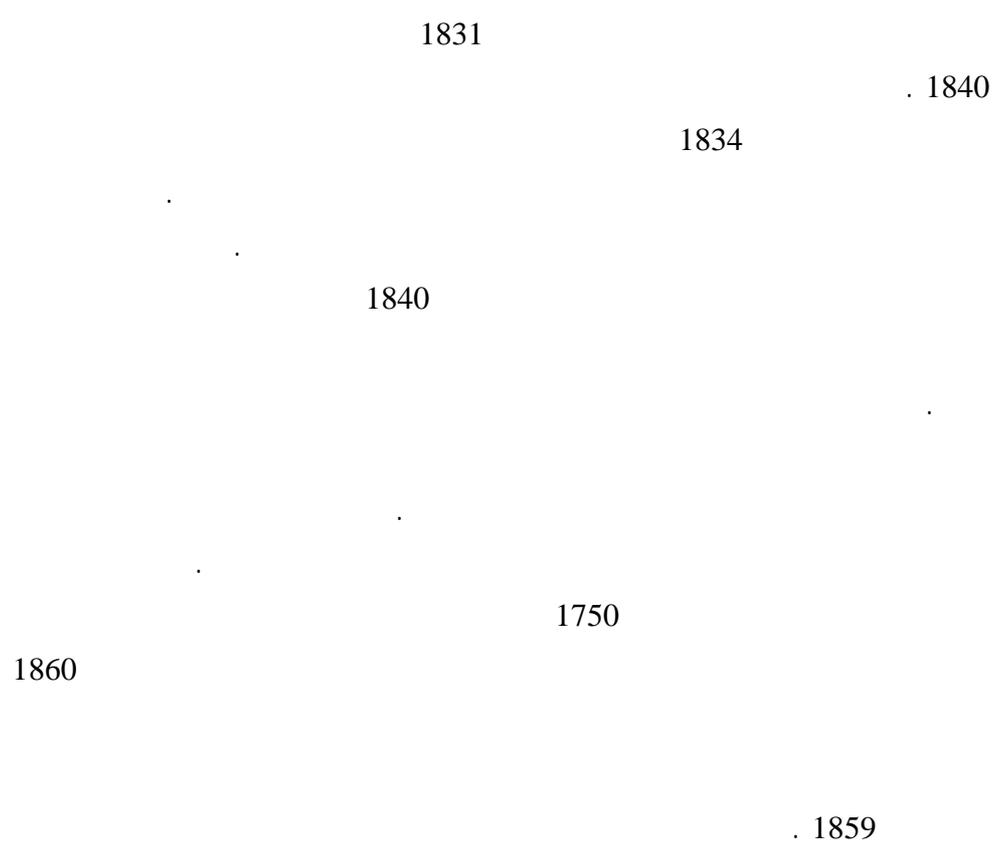

This study aims to shed light on the family of Abu-Gush as a local leadership in the nahiya of Bani-Malk which was one of the nawahy the sunjuq of Jerusalem in the Ottoman period. It tackles the origin of the family and its rise to power. The study discusses the crystallization of its local leadership in the second half of the eighteenth century. It explains the increasing of its power in the first half of the nineteenth century, its relation with the other local leaders, and the Ottoman authority. The study focuses also on the power of the family during the Egyptian rule (1831-1840), and its interaction with the new regime throughout alliances and oppositions. The study deals hegemony of the family after the end of the Egyptian rule, its attempt to recover its influence through the skirmishes with the local
